

6516206460.txt

I find it truly unbelievable that in this day and age, with huge oil prices, etc., that the Government would consider banning updates which help my ride in traffic. I know of no other radio station which dedicates itself solely to continual updates like XM's traffic stations.